Black Tailed Deer in Baker.

The train hands on the Sumpter Valley railway passenger train, coming over from Tipton yesterday flagged a black tail deer in the timber and the boys who carry a Japanese naval arsenal in the baggage car opened fire without hitting the animal. An excited passenger jumped off the train and gave chase. It is said the woods are full of deer now but the train doesn't wait for bunters. When the engineer sights an animal he blows the whistle.-Baker City Herald.

A four years' lease has been secured on the building and Mr. Fletcher has a four year contract with the Boys' band, and has agreed to furnish free street concerts beginning next spring, every summer month during the four years. He is well pleased with the personnel of the band which he is organizing, and says it gives brighter promise than any other boys' organization he has ever brought together in his long career as a bandmaster.

For Big Harbor Budget.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The house rivers and harbors committee assembled in Washington today for the purpose of freming a bill. Last year no general river and harbor bill was urged. The fact that the war department had large unexpended balance available for unfinished projects, and the degire not to appear extravagant on the eve of a presidential campaign were reasons for conservatism. This session liberal appropriations are exthed up for occupancy, and pected.
